A FEELING OF SECURITY

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's

Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

Swamp-Root is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs.

It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

It is not recommended for everything.

It is nature's great helper in relieving and curing kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-

Root.

mail—it will convince any one. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys. When writing be sure and mention the Los Angeles Daily Times.

ADD ORRILL, well known in Los Angeles society and junior member of the realty firm of Orrill & Son, of the Coulter building, yesterday settled an old score with Earl Meeker by slashing him in the neck with a pocketknife.

The slaying occurred in front of the Unique Theatre on Broadway, yesterday afternoon, in the presence of scores of shoppers. When Orrill met

Meeker, the latter put out his hand with the palm open, as though to shake hands. When the real estate man thought he was about to be attacked he was not, but he used his knife so effectively that a four-inch cut resulted.

Meeker's wound is painful but there will be no serious results unless complications arise.

Orrill, at the time of his meeting with Meeker, was cleaning his nails with the small blade of a pearl-handled knife. With this weapon Meeker's left ear was cut in two and a heavy muscle of the neck severed. As he staggered back, a friend supported him.

Orrill shut up his knife, returned to his office and telephoned to the police.

A detective arrested him and locked him up in jail, pending arraignment in the Police Court today.

The trouble between Meeker and Orrill arose more than a year ago. The latter alleged that the former had been interfering in his affairs. They had not met for months until yesterday.

Orrill is married and lives at No. 3000

East Adams street.

Annual Department Managers' Sale

Say! I Guess We're Going Some

Didn't Think We Could Do It, Did You

Well, to tell the truth, we didn't expect such an overwhelming success ourselves. We knew there would be crowds, but we didn't expect there would be an avalanche. Even with the hundred extra saleswomen we couldn't begin to wait on all the trade. We promise to do better the rest of the week. We know what to expect—we'll plan for it.

Now, just a word to the department managers from the committee.

Boys, we have it within our grasp to make this the most talked-of sale the Broadway has ever known.

Don't let down for a minute. Let's make this a week that will cause the management to sit up and take notice. Remember the slogan—cut prices to the core if you want to.

We, the Advertising Committee, want to announce that no items are going into this space that are not crowd-bringers, so get busy.

Three Pases and Two Swats Bring Victory.

Randolph Holds Beavers Down to Five Hits.

Red Fisher Clinches Contest With Hard Bingle.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

PORTLAND, June 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Randolph outpitched Groom today on the Vaughn-street grounds, winning easily from the local twirler. As a consequence, the Beavers are not leading the league although the fans had a few visions yesterday and today of doing that same stunt. Randolph was fine and steady on the mound today. He managed to keep the Beavers out of his first game from Portland on the local grounds. He got away with the mound because Groom was as wild as a range steer.

Groom was in bad from the first inning and he was in trouble all the time. Randolph managed to get some on the rolls and apply the brakes. Capt. Dillon's men slid the first over in the fifth. Delmas and Randolph threw a couple of two-balls in this chapter, yet in spite of the best efforts of the Beavers, they might not have registered but for Delmas's wild pitch. The attempt was at a short infield throw. It missed and Randolph scored.

With few down in the Beavers' half, the Beavers' manager, singled, Groom, Delmas and Casey duplicated his trick of Saturday and came through with the necessary pinch hit to keep the game alive.

With the game a tie, things moved along till the sixth. Here there was a chance for the locals, and it looked like the prophets of a Portland victory, with the home guard in the untenable position of heading the column, were not to be elected to the "chairs" after all. But these hopes proved vain.

Rafferty was safe on Dillon's line of his shot and Delmas trotted Rafferty along to the third with a two-out swing. An attempted sacrifice failed. Only one down, and Delmas, up, raised the hopes of the fans, but Delmas was not up to his usual form and he went the other way. Randolph walked Delmas and then Delmas struck out, the third strike being a foul tip.

The two runs that the Angels made in the sixth came easy. With the year full, Randolph hit a scorching shot to the left field, and Delmas, who was perched on the bags by virtue of a two-base walk, Groom walked Delmas and then Delmas struck out, the third strike being a foul tip.

McCredie tried to open up things for the locals in the ninth, but two were tucked away in early balls and the manager's visit out on an infield hit. As a consequence, there is little hope at the corner clear store, for the Beavers are not leading the league.

LID ON TIGHT; GAMBLERS HIT.

Police Commission Puts Ban on Many Evils.

Three Offending Cafes Lose Liquor Licenses.

Restaurants and Saloons to Be Separated.

The lid went on with an ominous snap yesterday afternoon and the wide-open door swung shut with a slam. The Police Commission revoked three cafe licenses and adopted a set of rules which, if enforced, will drive the bookmakers and other members of the streets, and banish all-night cafes.

These rules are more stringent than those adopted by any other commission at the height of the biggest reform wave that ever struck the city. The licenses revoked are:

Restaurant liquor license of the Concordia cafe, No. 292 South Main street.
Restaurant liquor license of the Bismarck cafe ("Bucket of Blood,") Main and Winston streets.

Restaurant liquor license of the Bar-bank cafe, No. 553 South Main street.
The new rules adopted provide that:
No liquor may be sold in any restaurant between the hours of 1 o'clock and 5 o'clock in the morning.

If bets are taken on prize fights, boxing contests, elections, or horse races, or books are made in any cigar stand in front of a saloon or billiard hall, the license of that saloon or billiard hall will be revoked.

After July 1 the same person or firm may not hold liquor licenses for both a saloon and a restaurant in the same or in adjoining rooms.

No wholesale liquor store may sell liquor in quantities less than one-fifth of a gallon.

MAYOR BEHIND RULES.
Mayor Harper says that these rules shall be obeyed while he is chief executive; that he will accept no excuses or explanations from the police department for any violations.

Helping along the reform movement, the Council voted yesterday to give to the City Attorney a secret service fund of $200 to be used in securing evidence on which to base complaints for violations of penal ordinances.

The Police Commission expected to revoke a saloon license yesterday. Officers Busse and Beaumont had acquired evidence sufficient to justify the revocation of the license of the Bismarck cafe, No. 292 South Main street, of O'Connor at No. 1455 North Main street for violating the Sunday-closing laws. But when their report was read, Commissioner O'Connor said that the owners of the saloon ducked for cover by selling their place yesterday to a third party, who knew nothing of Sunday violations.

Suspicious of a "wash sale," the commission withheld action on the report on this saloon until next Tuesday.

The rule providing that licenses may not be held to sell liquor in a saloon and a restaurant in the same or adjoining rooms will affect thirty-five cafes. This rule is intended to render effective the law requiring saloons to be closed on Sunday.

HITS ALL-NIGHT CAFES.
The closing of the all-night cafes is a long stride in the direction of reform. There are scores of restaurants that ply a thriving trade in selling liquor with near-meals during the early morning hours when the saloons are closed. Under the new law the sale of liquor in the cafes must stop short at 1 o'clock.

Coupled with the ordinance closing the wholesale liquor stores in the residence districts, the rules adopted yesterday place restrictions on the sale of liquor in the cafes. The rules provide that the sale of liquor in the cafes shall be made of lottery tickets are sold.

A walk went up on Main and Spring streets when the commission adopted the rule providing for the revocation of a saloon license if the liquor store in front of the saloon is conducted as a blind gambling joint, where books on the races are made or lottery tickets are sold.

This is aimed especially at the Greenwald, Cohn, Hookstratten and Jeffries places. It is adopted in response to their challenge to the police to "catch us if you can." Their defense consisted in raising their limit for bets to $100,000.

Now these men are voicing a different note. The saloon license for these places are worth $10,000 each; the proprietors know that the police can afford to spend $50 to pick up a saloon license.

THE NEW RULES.
The rules adopted by the police board are as follows:

Resolved, that in accordance with Section 11, Ordinance No. 518, new series, defining the powers and duties of the Police Commission, the following be the new rules of the board:

That hereafter when any license, poker playing, or other game or game contrary to the law is being conducted in a saloon, premises used for the conduct of any public billiard hall holding license permit from this board, such permit shall be forthwith revoked.

That hereafter when any bets are taken on prize fights, boxing contests, elections, horse races or other events, or any hand books are made at or in any cigar stand or store allocated in front of any public saloon or billiard hall holding license permit from this board, such saloon or billiard hall permit shall be revoked.

That whenever any saloon or billiard hall liquor, wine or other intoxicating beverage is sold, given away or furnished in any quantity less than one-fifth of a gallon in any liquor

DURANT IN DURANCE.

Court Fixes One Day in Jail, and Fines, for Local Manufacturer and Rancher.

Owing to the peculiar wording of a Federal statute which has recently been amended, E. M. Durant, a well-known manufacturer of this city and the owner of a big cattle ranch in the Antelope Valley, passed last night in the County Jail.

Several weeks ago Durant pleaded guilty in the Federal Court to a charge of unlawfully inclosing government land. It was a technical violation of the law. The imposition of the sentence was continued so that attorneys in the case could submit authorities bearing upon the kind of punishment that could be meted out.

After lengthy arguments yesterday, Judge Welborn, Dist. Atty.
McCormick held that the statute under which the indictment was drawn ruled in the passing of sentence. It fixed the penalty to be "a fine and imprisonment." The amended section, passed after the return of the indictment, reads: "fine or imprisonment."

The attorney for the defendant held that the court could impose the simple fine and that it was not obligatory to add the jail sentence. The District Attorney's office held the contrary view. After lengthy arguments yesterday, Judge Welborn said that he was inclined to accept McCormick's view of the matter and imposed a fine sentence of one day.

Federal officials extended every possible courtesy to Durant last night and took him to the County Jail where he had supper. He will be released early this morning.

MRS. EVA SHIRLEY DEAD.
Well-Known Los Angeles Woman Passes Suddenly While on a Visit in Ohio.

On Monday morning last Mrs. Eva J. Shirley of Los Angeles passed away suddenly at Toledo, O. Heart failure was the cause of her death. Mrs. Shirley, in company with her husband, Ira W. Shirley, went East a short time ago on a visit. When they left her Mrs. Shirley was in her usual health, and the news of her death comes as a great surprise and shock to her large circle of friends. Mr. Shirley has started home with the remains, and the funeral probably will be held here on Saturday next.

Mrs. Shirley was well known in Los Angeles, having lived here many years.
Mr. Shirley is a retired capitalist. A year ago last August, Mrs. Shirley made the trip to the Orient with The Times party. Two sisters, Mrs. Gillan and Mrs. Durkee, and a niece, Miss Durkee, all of this city, are among the members of the family who are left to mourn her sudden demise.

Some scenes from the life of a Santa Monica bovine, through which the street superintendent, his son and an eminent citizen got into court yesterday.

BIRDS' RIVAL
ART OF FLYING
TO BE STUDIED.

AERO CLUB OF CALIFORNIA IS NOW ORGANIZED.

President Member of National Association and Formerly Connected With French Body-State Charter Will Be Obtained—Testing Ground on Desert Is Suggested.

Officers of the Aero Club of California were elected at the second meeting of that organization, held in The Times library last evening. J. S.
Zerbe, formerly a member of the Aero Club of France and also of the Aero Club of America, was chosen president; H. M. Dungan of Santa Ana, first vice-president; Leon L. Cooley, second vice-president; J. D. Minster, secretary, and M. P. Dodge, treasurer.

The Membership Committee appointed includes A. H. McCulloch, chairman; W. A. Hall, F. L. Hetzel, M. W. Green and L. L. Cooley. The members of the committee to procure suitable testing grounds and quarters for a library on aeronautical subjects, as well as for the display of various models which may be built, are Nelson Taylor, Jacob H. Klassen and W. H. Wilson. Future contests will be arranged for by W. H. Leonard, C. F. Gates and A. F. Barra.

As soon as possible, the club will take out a State charter and affiliate with the Aero Club of America.
A report was received on sites which would be suitable for experiments. One suggested is the dry lake bed at Rosemond, near Mojave. The lake bed itself is very smooth and even and the surrounding country is all sand dunes.
The brave adopted state that the club will foster and promote the science of aeronautics, initiate trials of utility and speed, inaugurate contests, provide trial grounds for the use of its members and facilities for making tests of all kind of machines and mechanism, to cooperate with other societies here and abroad and obtain all possible information on subjects pertaining to the art of flying.

The Executive Committee is composed of the officers of the organization and the chairman of the committees.

BITTER FEUD OF HUSBANDS.

Evans's Fight Against Owens
Full of Thrills.

Harry Fleishman Bank Loot
May Be Lugged in.

Humiliating Admissions of Railroad President.

"Were you ever convicted of a felony?"
"Yes, sir."
"How many times have you been married?"
"Four times."
"You deserted one of your wives and her child in destitution?"
(Not answered.)
"Your present wife was formerly the wife of the man against whom you are now testifying?"
"Yes, sir."
"Have you ever been a professional hypnotist?"
"Yes, sir."

These confessions from the witness stand in Judge Monroe's court yesterday, as the grand jury heard J. Whyte Evans, president of the United Railroads of Portland, Or., for the privilege of prosecuting Dr. J. S. Owens of this city.

The two rivals are the past and present husbands of the beautiful Minnie Evans-Owens, formerly the belle of Los Angeles.

That the above is only the first installment of the price to be paid must have been evident to Evans yesterday as he looked down from the witness stand at a trim little lady in brown in the courtroom.

She is the wife of Harry Fleishman, the defaulting cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank.

Evans is said to be involved in a dramatic way with the fortunes of the hapless Fleishman in his wandering over the face of the earth.

An attempt will undoubtedly be made to bring the Fleishman affair into the trial of Dr. Owens on a charge of attempting to extort money from Evans on the threat of exposing his "past."

The claim is made by Dr. Owens that his rival met and traveled with Harry Fleishman while the latter was flying from the city of Mexico on his way to Guatemala.

Evans is said to have been introduced to Fleishman rather casually and to have accompanied him on a long horseback trip on the way to Central America.

In route, Fleishman is said to have confided his peculiar situation to Evans, supposedly on the ground that he, too, hated from Los Angeles.

Fleishman, at that time, was heartily sorry for what he had done and wanted to return some of the money.
It is not clear whether Fleishman intended to have Evans square his defalcations and then come back to Los Angeles, or whether he merely wanted him to return the tainted money.

At any rate, it is alleged that Fleishman told Evans where he had the money hidden in Mexico, and arranged for the return of the tainted money.
Evans, returning, might get the two packages in which the stolen cash was kept. There was about $50,000.

The charges are made that Evans returned and flashed around great sums of money belonging to the Fleishman board; that he immediately went to Europe, married Mrs. Owens out of her husband's house, and has ever since prospered.

It should be stated in justice to Mr.
Evans that the prosecution takes no stock whatever in this story against the prosecuting witness. It is supposed that the story of the continued persecution endured by Evans at the hands of his wife's former husband, Deputy District Attorney, is a mere pretext for the charges with a laugh of ap-eciation.

The very obvious hatred of the two husbands of the former Minnie Evans formed a dramatic feature of the trial, which began yesterday.

Evans seemed willing to have his whole lurid past laid bare for the satisfaction of fixing a criminal charge of extortion upon Dr. Owens.

Owens seemed positively enjoying his own trial on account of the joy that it gave him to see Evans in the pillory.
Evans says that he has spent two or three years counting the cost of telling this story from the witness stand. At last the threatening letters of Owens became unendurable. He says that he never sat down at a director's meeting in the United Railroads of Portland, Ore., since the threatening letter from Dr. Owens.

The main threat made by Dr. Owens was to expose the prison record of Evans and to reveal that he became naturalized on perjured testimony—having sworn that he had not been convicted of a felony.

Mention was also made by Owens in his letter of various alleged embezzle-ments of the United Railroads.

Under the guidance of Deputy District Attorney McCormick and his special counsel, W. H. Anderson, Evans told the story of the threats made day, before Judge Monroe and a jury.

Evans is a short, gray-haired man, with a red face and a stubby mustache.
Although formerly a sewing machine agent, he is said to be now a millionaire. When turned over to Attorney McCormick for cross-examination, he acted like one at bay; he knew that the dreaded ordeal had come at last.

Rush asked him where he was born

MOTHER IS IN AWFUL DOUBT.

Knows not Whether Son Is Dead or Alive.

Latent Tragic Development in Old Vernon War.

Plaintiff in a Suit Against Trustee Kidnaped!

On the eve of a trial in the Superior Court, in which he was to appear as chief witness against one of the Trustees of the city of Vernon, Edward DeTurk, the 18-year-old son of Mrs. J. G. DeTurk, has mysteriously disappeared. The police and county officers are searching for him.

He left his mother for a moment, as she supposed, but he has not been seen since. The woman waited twenty minutes for him, and then instituted a search. The track of a motorcycle and the marks of scuffling and struggling feet were found on the ground near by.

Mrs. DeTurk believes that her son was kidnaped by men who laid in wait for him and pointed upon him as he stopped to pick up his crutches from a bush where he had hidden them.

The old war between the settlers on the Los Angeles side of the Vernon line and those on the other side had been renewed.

Young DeTurk was spirited away Thursday night. His mother had been injured and had been compelled to use crutches. Thursday night he decided to go to his mother's home and see her.
Accompanied by Miss Earl Day and Edward, she left her ranch home near the Los Angeles side of the line between Vernon and this city and walked to the car. When the party reached the car line, Mrs. DeTurk told her boy to hide behind the car and she did not wish to be bothered with them on the trip to the city. He walked a hundred feet toward the railway track and put the crutches in some bushes.

Then they boarded a car, came to the city and stopped at the terminus of the car line, near their home, at midnight.

As they left the car and started down the road, Mrs. DeTurk noticed the figures of two men on the railway tracks. One held a lantern. Edward left the women and started toward the beach where he had hidden his crutches.
The lantern disappeared, but no sound was heard.

After waiting twenty minutes for her son, Mrs. DeTurk called a car and home by Miss Day and the alarm was given. The neighbors turned out with lanterns and followed the boy's tracks to the bushes where the ground was trampled as though there had been a struggle.

Footprints of two men led from the railroad to the point of the struggle, and the tracks of motorcycle wheels also appeared. It is thought the boy was overpowered, placed over the side of the machine and taken away.
The trail was soon lost among the piles of scrap and rubbish of the Los Angeles city dump.

It looks as if the case of Edward De-Turk against the Vernon Trustees would have to be postponed.

The fight between Mrs. DeTurk and the Trustees of Vernon is one of long standing, and one in which the city of Los Angeles is deeply interested.

The woman owns a big ranch near the bed of the Los Angeles River. Her property lies in the line dividing Vernon from this city. Some months ago the Vernon Trustees decided that as more Los Angeles rubbish could be dumped on the Vernon side, or at least, trouble resulted. A portion of Mrs. DeTurk's property is used as the city dump. Two negroes were arrested by Vernon officers for charging rubbish in Vernon. The negroes alleged that the officers kidnaped them, and arrested them after they had been dragged over to the Vernon side.

MUCH BITTER FEELING.
Bitter feeling arose between property holders on both sides of the line.
A trustee of Vernon was later arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace of Mrs. DeTurk by spreading

MOON FOES IN SESSION.

Attend Convention of the State League.

Chapman Tells of Birth of 'Stainless Flag.'

Members of the State League of Women Voters met today at the Hotel California for their annual convention. The convention was opened by a prayer by Rev. John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and a report by Rev. A. C. Hane, of San Francisco, and A. L. Banks, of San Luis Obispo. Last night's session was devoted to the presentation of a report by Rev. L. N. McCall, of Berkeley, on 'A Civic Conference.'

At 9:30 o'clock this morning the Committee on Nominations will make its report, and the remainder of the forenoon session will be devoted to 'Edging from the Field,' during which the following persons will speak: San Jose district, Superintendent T. H. Lawson; San Luis Obispo county, Superintendent R. H. Young; Santa Barbara, Rev. W. D. More; Stockton district, Superintendent W. F. Andrews; Fresno district, Superintendent J. J. Bristol.

The Committee on Resolutions will report at 1:30 o'clock p.m., and addresses will be made on the general subject of 'Edging from the Field' by Prof. W. F. Burns and Rev. W. E. Perry. Rev. L. G. Spring will review the work in San Jacinto, and Rev. George B. Cliff in Corona. The convention will close with an address by State Superintendent Chapman at 6 o'clock.

EXPERT VIEW OF THE CITRUS BOOM.

BY E. A. WRIGHT.

There is no longer any doubt but what the California orange is becoming more and more popular every year and that the demand is stronger at the present time than during any previous year as late in the season as it is now. In former years the little dealer in the cities bought berries as soon as they appeared in the markets and had no further interest in oranges and his customer seemed to be satisfied and took what was offered him. This year, however, the people are calling for oranges and paying the highest prices of the season. One New York dealer was boasting a week ago that at $4.50 a box for California oranges he had broken all May records. On May 27, this same dealer sold for $4.50, another brand from a different district sold for $4.50, and the dealer in the city who came to the choice grades of navel sold for $5.00, fancy navel for $5.50, fancy sweets for $6.00, and extra choice seedlings for $6.50. The dealer who sold on May 27 when fifty cars of berries are being sold, and with the knowledge that 120 cars were to be offered on the day following. Other markets did equally as well. A choice grade of navel from Claremont selling at Pittsburgh for $4.50, while seedlings, sweets and fancy navel ranged from $3.50 to $5.00 per box.

There are not over 100 cars of navel left in the State and the same is true of seedlings. Sweets are also clearing up with strong demand and at the prices.

Dealers state that they are still looking Valencia at same old figures, $2 per box, f.o.b. Very few Valentinas are showing in auctions as yet and this is well as they should be kept from competition with other oranges and sold only on orders until other varieties are out of the way.

Valencias will commence to go out in quantities by the 10th of June, from both the northern and southern sections. All reports are to the effect that the fruit is juicy, thin-skinned, of good color and desirable size.

Lemons are looking up and prices received the past week in the auctions are surely encouraging. Prices in the Middle West went nearly to $4 per box. In the eastern foreign the prices were higher on foreign fruit, which is a good indication of advancing markets even if the California lemons offered there did bring very low prices. Most of the California fruit being offered in the far eastern auctions at the present time is fruit that has been trapping over the country looking for a market and has been sent to the auctions as a last resort. This fruit is generally stale and shows more or less decay and is not wanted by the better trade and so sells for prices that look very bad when they appear in print.

The very best lemons are selling for $4.50, California for $2.75, ordinary brands at $2.50 and the poorer keeping stock at $2.25 for fancy grades.

The average man does not know that different sections of the country want a different kind, or rather, a different size and grade of a lemon. The men who deal in oranges and lemons of course know this for it is their business to cater to the wants of any and every particular section. A line drawn through Kansas City, Indianapolis and Wichita would show the deciding line on lemons. A dealer north of that line wants large, high-grade lemons, while to the south the reverse is true. They want a small lemon and a large dealer states that a fancy lemon will bring no more in New Orleans than a standard grade. Asked why this was, he could only account for it on the theory that the South, as a general thing was not as able to buy as the North, and wanted all the lemons they could get for the money; size and quality being of less account than quantity.

There will be 25,000 boxes of foreign lemons offered in New York City this week and are on hand in storage and afloat, so as to be available within the next thirty days, 25,000 boxes as against 25,000 last year and 200,000 boxes in 1904.

BOYLE HEIGHTS DEATH.

Mrs. Ellen Lundegren, aged 71 years, is dead at the family home, No. 469 South 10th street, Boyle Heights, having expired suddenly. She leaves three daughters and a son. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 9:30 at the home, and at St. Mary's Church at 10.

No Opiates or Drugs

Mix a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine with two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whisky. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

It is claimed this formula will strengthen weak lungs, heal the bronchial tubes, check a cold quickly and cure any cough that is curable. It will break up an ordinary case of the 'croup' in a few days. Being free from opiates and drugs, it is far preferable to the ordinary cough mixture.

The necessary ingredients can be secured at small cost from any good drug store, and easily prepared in your own home. Virgin Oil of Pine is put up for dispensing only in half-ounce vials, each vial secured sealed in a small, round wooden case. Rank imitations have been put out to resemble it in name and style of package. These are essentially ineffective and often cause nausea. Be sure to get the genuine. Look for the name—Virgin Oil of Pine compounded pure, guaranteed under Serial No. 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

Budweiser

SPARKLES with life. It has a brilliant glow—is full of solid nutriment—snappy and inviting to the palate—the combined soul of malt and hops—the cream of the harvest fields—the health bringing home beer.

THE KING OF ALL BOTTLED BEERS

Posessed the highest type of literary genius. It is more than two centuries since he ceased to write, but when shall he cease to be read?

He grasped all things. He saw into the profoundest depths of human nature. Thoughts inimitable were at the point of his pen.

His personages live and move as if they had just come from the hand of a creator. He was not a man of one idea, but part of the intense life of flesh and blood that seethed around him. Exuberant vitality of mind, body and soul was his supreme characteristic.

Personally he was a handsome, well-shaped man, of a merry temperament, abounding in energy and overflowing with health.

His favorite eating place in London was the celebrated Falcon tavern. Here men like Ben Johnson, Marlowe, Ford, Fletcher, Herrick, Raleigh, etc., met him daily.

These literary giants of the heroic Elizabethan age were in the habit of discussing the burning topics of their time (which included the colonization of America) over foaming tankards of beer.

With all these greatnesses upon him, come, we have a bet venture upon it, that, even if you had a large glass of beer, you would not drink down all his greatness.

FEUD OF HUSBANDS.

and Evans answered that he was born in Scotland in 1863. Rush traced him on his various travels from San Francisco to Tulsa, and to Los Angeles, where he taught in business colleges. In Los Angeles he became a sewing machine agent.

He was a ranch manager in China, a railway promoter in Mexico, a tourist in Europe, and president of a railroad in Portland, Maine, various things in New York and Chicago.

Ever a professional hypnotist, asked Rush:

Evans (flushing): Yes, sir.

Rush: Advertised yourself around as the greatest hypnotist ever seen, and had your face on billboards.

Evans denied it with heat, but finally admitted that others advertised him; he did not advertise himself.

He said he gave hypnotic exhibitions at the Hotel Green, at Chicago, Ontario and San Francisco.

Rush: Had at him contemptuously.

"Ever been convicted of a felony?"

OWNED UP.

The president of the United Railroads of Portland turned red and white, and answered in a quick whisper.

"Yes, sir."

"What was the felony?"

"Grand larceny," answered Evans.

"Are you a married man?"

"Yes, sir."

"How many times have you been married?"

"Four times," answered Evans in a dogged voice.

"How many of your wives are living?"

"I don't know."

Then Rush asked sarcastically:

"How many do you know to be living?"

Judge Monroe sustained an objection to this question.

Questioned further, witness admitted that when he met Dr. Owens, he (Evans) was a sewing-machine agent; Dr. Owens was then living with the lady who is now Mrs. Evans.

The transfer of her affections is said to be the real cause of all the bitterness between the two men.

Rush also brought out the fact that, although threatening letters were received in the fall of 1904, witness made no complaint about them until this year.

"You didn't bring these criminal charges against Dr. Owens until you knew he was about to sue you for this money?"

Evans said he did not cause the doctor's arrest until after the talk of bringing the civil suit, but said the civil suit was not the cause of the arrest.

"Didn't you tell Capt. Hance, city treasurer of Los Angeles and father of Mrs. Evans, that if Dr. Owens sued you, you would come to Los Angeles and have him arrested?"

"No; but I said I would have him arrested if he didn't stop writing me these letters and sending telegrams about this money."

"Have you ever been naturalized?"

Evans said he had, about ten years ago. His naturalization was not referred to again.

"Didn't you leave your wife and child in a destitute condition, not paying them money you had promised?"

Objection was sustained and Evans was excused from the witness stand.

There will be little to the prosecution. The defendant, Dr. Owens, will probably be called to the stand today.

Mrs. Minnie Hance Owens, Evans was not in the courtroom, although she is at present in the city.

AUTOS CRASH; WOMAN HURT.

Chauffeur for Motor Company Taking Wrong Side of Street—Blamed for Accident.

In a collision between two automobiles at Third street and Broadway about 11 o'clock last night, Mrs. J. May Peck of No. 3417 Marston way was thrown out of one of the machines and slightly injured.

J. E. Scott, a chauffeur for the Lord Motor Car Company, was in the other car, and is blamed for the accident.

Peck was driving at a fair rate of speed when he took the wrong side of the street just before reaching the crossing.

The front end of Peck's machine was smashed. He was driving north on Broadway, and when the collision took place Mrs. Peck was tossed into the air and fell to the ground.

She received a severe shock, but was not much bruised.

Scott drove Mr. and Mrs. Peck home and offered to repair their machine.

Scott Like a Fish.

If it were not for his sex, Hal J. Browning, who was yesterday admitted to the City Hospital from the Mills Hotel, Cincinnati, where he was stopping, would have made an excellent mermaid.

Browning is suffering from ichthyosis, otherwise known as the fish scale disease. From his feet midway to his chest his skin is covered with scales resembling in every particular those of a fish.

Science so far has been unable to trace the cause of the disease, but that it is practically incurable has long been discovered. It is exceedingly painful, causing intense itching, and at the joints, where the scales break with every movement, the torture is agonizing.

Browning will be kept in a hot bath most of the time and have his skin rubbed with unguents to give him relief. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Superstitions of Stage Folk.

"A stock actor is apt to have a prejudice against decorating or fixing up his dressing-room. He is certain to get his notice shortly after he puts his pictures on the wall and otherwise makes the place comfortable and homelike."

"Actors and managers both have a horror of the witch lines in 'Macbeth,' and they never will allow them to be spoken, as it means a fire in the playhouse before the twelfth month is over."

Henry Irving was a firm believer in this superstition, and he would never allow the fateful lines to be read when he was playing the tragedy.

"I know many players who fear to have any one pass them on a stairway when they are entering a theater. There are many actors who make the sign of the cross before they make an entrance." —Chicago Tribune.

"Rabbi, Bredderen."

Shortly after Levi's surrender at Appomattox, a convention of negro ministers was held in Washington.

A white-haired old Pennsylvania veteran attended one of their meetings and as an after-dinner story, used to tell about it.

"One of the old preachers was surprisingly intelligent," he said, "meeting by old Levi or of his district and almost literally brought down the house."

"And He said unto them, Rabbi! Bredderen," he went on, "dis am very significant. It means you. It means me."

"And He said unto them, Rabbi! Bredderen. He meant it then and it am dis same now. We must all of us be Rabbi, and if you don't rabbit here your soul will rise up in hell and rabbit there!" —Exchange.
